

Mekong ICT Camp

Mekong ICT Camp 2013

A Mekong Sub-region Network for Information-Communication- Technology Capacity Development

What is Mekong ICT Camp?

- Mekong ICT Camp is a biannual training workshop on information, communication, and technologies for citizen media, community health, and civil society development in Mekong sub-region.
- Mekong ICT Camp designed for the individuals and groups who are committed to ICT4D (information, communication and technology for development)

Mekong ICT Camp 2008

Time: Feb. '08

Place: Pattaya

Days: 5

People: 76

Countries: 8

- Theme: ICT for Advocacy
- At Thammasat University, Pattaya

Mekong ICT Camp 2010

Time: Jun. '10

Place: Chiang Mai

Days: 5

People: 83

Countries: 9

- Theme: Mekong Communication Tools
- At Chiang Mai

hackers, citizen journalists, health workers, government officers, social theorists, activists, in one room!

Mekong ICT Camp 2013

Mekong ICT Camp 2013

A Mekong Sub-region Network for Information-Communication-Technology
Capacity Development

Mekong ICT Camp 2013

- Theme: Data Data
- Date: May 6 – 10, 2013
- Venue: The Sirindhorn Environment Park, Cha-am, Petchburi, Thailand

Theme

Data Data

Curriculum

- E-management: Management of organizations and information;
- E-advocacy: Electronic advocacy and social media strategies;
- E-infrastructure: Informatics infrastructure for social development;
- Open participation paradigm: Free Software, Creative Commons and read/write culture.

Field Work

- Disaster Management
- Digital Journalism
- ICT for Community Development

Camp's Participants

We will select approximately 60 persons, from independent media, community practitioners, natural disaster program staff and civil society organizations in the Mekong sub-region countries (Burma, Cambodia, Laos, Thailand, and Vietnam)

More Info.

www.mekongict.org

twitter.com/mekongict

facebook.com/mekongict

Search for “mkict” and “Mekong ICT Camp” on SlideShare, Flickr, YouTube, Twitter

Hope to see you there!!